Later, and for thirty years (1928 to 1959), he was the pastor of Southside Alliance Church in Chicago; the final years of his life he spent as pastor of Avenue Road Church in Toronto, Ontario, Canada. Observing contemporary Christian living, Tozer felt the church was on a dangerous course toward compromising with "worldly" concerns.

"The introduction to the popular and long-standing Tozer Pulpit set makes the following observations: 'A.W. Tozer was basically a preacher of the Word of God. His editorship of The Alliance Witness and his ability to write books that attracted a great throng of readers were, in his sight, incidental to his preaching and teaching ministry'".

Discover the never-before-published prayers of A. W. Tozer as he opens his sermons. Is there a holier moment than when a preacher steps into the pulpit and opens the Scriptures before the people of the Lord? A. W. Tozer certainly understood the gravity and sanctity of that moment. His pulpit prayers reflect the holy awe that he experienced as he stood before God and the gathered congregation. Although Tozer fans are familiar with his writings and sermons, now for the first time, Approaching the Almighty collects the prayers that Tozer offered as he stepped into the pulpit to preach. Phil Stappard, a Moody Radio manager whose job was to remaster the audiotapes of Tozer's sermons, has collected and transcribed almost two hundred prayers that reveal the great preacher's intimate walk with God. The path to a rich prayer life is to pray alongside others whose faith is deep. Let Tozer's pulpit prayers guide your own heart in its steadfast pursuit of God.

"An edited version of the Tozer classic which was formerly published under the titles, When he is come and Tozer pulpit, volume 2"--T.p. verso.

James Snyder has done a masterful job of selecting and transcribing sermons from his private collection of rare recordings, and has also captured Tozer the man in biographical essays laced with anecdotes and personal material that only a seasoned researcher could find. The book has two bonuses: a CD recording of Tozer in the pulpit and an excerpt from In Pursuit of God, the Christianity Today Reader's choice award-winning biography of Tozer by James L. Stryder.

"We are saved to worship God. All that Christ has done for us in the past and all that He is doing now leads to this one end." A. W. Tozer Tozer had strong convictions about the subject of worship, as well as its corruption by what he called "the great god Entertainment." The excerpts in this book were carefully selected to give you a clear picture of his thoughts on both topics: Worship: Unacceptable Worship, Spiritual Concentration, The Presence of God, the Power of God, Personal Communion, Adoration, Hymns Entertainment: Evangelical Heresy, Propoganda, An Outward Shift, Modern Evangelism, Religious Activity, Worldliness Also included are Tozer's sermon "The Act and Object of Worship" in its entirety and his controversial essay "The Menace of the Religious Movie," written in the mid-1950s. You might not agree with all that Tozer says, but, as always, he draws a line in the sand and causes us to think critically about what is and isn't worship, and if what we are doing is truly worship.
