NEW YORK TIMES BESTSELLER • “A fascinating look at how consumers perceive logos, ads, commercials, brands, and products.”—Time
How much do we know about why we buy? What truly influences our decisions in today’s message-cluttered world? In Buyology, Martin Lindstrom presents the astonishing findings from his groundbreaking three-year, seven-million-dollar neuromarketing study—a cutting-edge experiment that peered inside the brains of 2,000 volunteers from all around the world as they encountered various ads, logos, commercials, brands, and products. His startling results shatter much of what we have long believed about what captures our interest—and drives us to buy. Among the questions he explores:
• Does sex actually sell?
• Does subliminal advertising still surround us?
• Can “cool” brands trigger our mating instincts?
• Can our other senses—smell, touch, and sound—be aroused when we see a product?
Buyology is a fascinating and shocking journey into the mind of today’s consumer that will captivate anyone who’s been seduced—or turned off—by marketers’ relentless attempts to win our loyalty, our money, and our minds.

Designed by Mercedes’s head of design Bruno Sacco, the W124 range immediately became the benchmark by which medium-sized car models were judged in the late 1980s due to its engineering excellence and high build quality. There was a model to suit every would-be-buyer, from the taxi driver through the family motorist and on to those who were willing and able to pay for luxury and performance. This book covers: design, development and manufacture of all models of W124 including estates, cabriolets and the stylish coupe range; engines and performance; special editions and AMG models and, finally, buying and owning a W124 today. Superbly illustrated with 264 colour photographs.

This is a little gem of a book—the perfect Christmas gift for lovers of reading! Reading Pleasures is filled with gorgeous photographs and artworks, each paired with an inspiring quotation. Book lover and host of The Book Club Jennifer Byrne introduces the book magnificently in her Foreword: ‘Here are brief quotations and observations on the reading life, accompanied by illustrations from the National Library of Australia’s own collection’. They ‘amount to a celebration—and examination—of the lifelong, earthy, impossible-to-explain love affair between readers and their books.’ We all read in different ways: some in a private moment reveling in the escape that reading allows, or some with an eye to sharing and discussing. ‘Tim Winton sums up reading in one word: ‘privacy’. But for others, reading is company. ‘As long as you have the capacity to read,’ says Elliot Perlman, ‘you needn’t be alone any more’. Or as Richard Flanagan puts it in The Narrow Road to the Deep North, when his hero Dorrigo Evans stands in his library: ‘he was not alone’. And Miles Franklin wonderfully describes the place we go to when we are reading as ‘book-land’. To return to Jennifer: ‘As the chorus of voices in this book makes clear, there are as many ways to read as there are to live.’
